Howdy, TAMU Students!

Have you ever had a faculty member or instructor who made a lasting, positive impact on your life through their teaching practices? Don’t miss this opportunity to share how these individuals have enhanced your Aggie learning experience and be eligible to win $500 – share your story! The Center for Teaching Excellence is happy to announce the Student Call for Nominations for the fourth annual Aggies Celebrate Teaching! – Recognizing Transformational Learning event.

Have you ever had a faculty member or instructor who has...
...challenged you to think in new ways?
...inspired you to think more deeply?
...transformed your educational experience?
...made a lasting, positive impact on your life?

Share your experiences by nominating the TAMU faculty member or instructor that has transformed your perspective through their teaching! The following Student Award is open to all current Texas A&M University undergraduate and graduate students in College Station, Galveston, and Qatar; Health Science Center and School of Law. Two graduate and four undergraduate students will be selected from the submissions and will receive a $500 education grant. The nominated faculty members and instructors of these six students will receive a $1,500 professional development grant. Additionally, students who nominate by the Early Bird deadline, December 16, 2019, will be entered into a drawing to win a YETI Tundra 45 cooler! Please see qualifying details on the link below.
