

Information and Resources to Support

INSTRUCTORS:

- Aggie Honor System Office – rules and procedures, support for academic integrity development. (see also Academic Honesty Quiz – in TAMU Libraries Oak Trust from Kati Stoddard (Instructional Associate Professor, Plant Pathology & Microbiology))
- Academic Success Center – for Supplemental Instruction (SI), see Instructors: Get SI For Your Class
- Canvas – Learning Management System (LMS) for TAMU, see also Training and Support.
- Center for Teaching Excellence – offers evidence-based instructional professional development opportunities for faculty and graduate students in individual and group formats, facilitates teaching achievement, and impact cte@tamu.edu.
- Disability Resources – see Faculty Resource Guide and Services
- Faculty E-Handbook – Dean of Faculties publication for faculty which includes a section on teaching
- Help Desk Central – general technical support

- Instructional Media Services – support for classroom technology
- Keep Teaching – instructional support information emphasizing blended or hybrid and distance formats
- Learning Management System – Canvas and integrated tools
- Libraries – TAMU (link to information for faculty - scroll down for Teaching Support)
- Mediasite – a platform for upload of instructional video
- Office for Academic Innovation – support for Learning Management System or LMS (Canvas) and distance learning, helpdesk aihelp@tamu.edu
- Office of Institutional Effectiveness & Evaluation – Student Course Evolutions (SCEs) and Early Feedback.
- University Writing Center – support for students working on communication and writing assignments and instructors teaching communication and writing-intensive courses

