Information and Resources to Support

- Academic Success Center – support for students including academic coaching and tutoring, support for instructors through Supplemental Instruction (SI) – see Instructors: Get SI For Your Class

- (Student) Counseling & Psychological Services – resource for instructors concerned about student mental health and wellbeing

- Disability Resources – see Faculty Resource Guide and Services

- English Language Proficiency – provides services to support international instructors wishing to improve their spoken English skills

- Graduate Student Support – instructional professional development specifically for graduate students (jointly supported by Center for Teaching Excellence and Graduate and Professional School)

- Help Desk Central – general technical support

- Math Learning Center (MLC) – supports students in high-enrollment courses with significant math, statistics, and quantitative reasoning content

- Office for Academic Innovation – support for distance learning, helpdesk aihelp@tamu.edu

- Office for Student Success – coordinates student success initiatives and First-Year Experience components

- Student Health Services – provides evidence-based healthcare to students

- University Writing Center – support for students working on communication and writing assignments and instructors teaching communication and writing intensive courses.

For additional resources & information, please scan this QR code