

Information and Resources to Support

LEARNERS:

- Academic Success Center – support for students including academic coaching and tutoring, support for instructors through Supplemental Instruction (SI) – see Instructors: Get SI For Your Class
- (Student) Counseling & Psychological Services – resource for instructors concerned about student mental health and wellbeing
- Disability Resources – see Faculty Resource Guide and Services
- English Language Proficiency – provides services to support international instructors wishing to improve their spoken English skills
- Graduate Student Support – instructional professional development specifically for graduate students (jointly supported by Center for Teaching Excellence and Graduate and Professional School)
- Help Desk Central – general technical support
- Math Learning Center (MLC) – supports students in high-enrollment courses with significant math, statistics, and quantitative reasoning content
- Office for Academic Innovation – support for distance learning, helpdesk aihelp@tamu.edu
- Office for Student Success – coordinates student success initiatives and First-Year Experience components
- Student Health Services – provides evidence-based healthcare to students
- University Writing Center – support for students working on communication and writing assignments and instructors teaching communication and writing intensive courses.

